Royal Family Kids' Camps, Inc.

Wayne and Diane Tesch started the first RFKC in 1985 in Costa Mesa, California. In 1990 they founded RFKC, Inc. to oversee development of Royal Family Kids' Camps around the world. This year there are 169 RFKCs [148 in U.S. and 21 international camps] with 8500 unpaid volunteers serving over 6700 special needs children in 38 states and 13 foreign countries.

In 2009 Houghton RFKC organized a fundraising drive for a Perm, Russia RFKC under the direction of Yuliya Elyshpstanova. Yuliya did a "pilot" camp in January 2010 and completed her first full camp this past week. Dan and Kathy Moore assisted Yuliya at the campsite last week and they are volunteering at the Houghton camp this week.
