

New Year Hope

*For I am about to do something new. See, I have already begun! Do you not see it?
I will make a pathway through the wilderness. I will create rivers in the dry wasteland.
(Isaiah 43:19)*

I find it difficult to believe that we are on the precipice of a new year. It seems like only a couple of years ago that we were wringing our hands in anticipation of Y2K. Here it is 2019! As we prepare to turn the page on 2018, I find myself thinking about change.

I have never been a fan of change. I struggle with new rules in the sports I follow. I struggle with new words and new meanings of old words. I struggle with the way our culture thinks about things so differently than when I was young or at least younger. But as much as I have hesitantly come to grips with these things, I am learning something about change: it is one of God's greatest gifts.

The opposite of change is not tradition; it's stagnation, deterioration, death.

This does not mean that traditions or past ways of doing things are to be rejected outright. It does mean that as we value and give thanks for things past, we also embrace things new.

The word "new" is used hundreds of times in the Bible—rarely as something to fear but as something to celebrate. I will lead blind Israel down a new path, guiding them along an unfamiliar way. I will brighten the darkness before them and smooth out the road ahead of them. Yes, I will indeed do these things; I will not forsake them (Isaiah 42:16). Jesus speaks of the day when the world is made new and the Son of Man sits upon his glorious throne (Matthew 19:28). The apostle John is given a vision of the new Jerusalem which will be our eternal home (Revelation 21-22).

One of the unique dynamics of the kingdom of Jesus is that we need not fear the new even as we value the old. God builds on what has been but always with the intent of leading us to the excitement of what will be. It's the promise of something new that gives us hope in our struggles and burdens.

As you and I enter into 2019, let us do so with joy and anticipation. God has great plans for us. God has bigger dreams for us than we have for ourselves. God desires for us to experience the blessing of newness of life with him. Will we trust him and find his joy?

Blessings,
Pastor Wes

THANK YOU: The Pastoral Staff would like to thank you for your generosity and gratitude to each of us this Christmas season. We were overwhelmed by the outpouring of love and appreciation we felt through your many gifts, personal acts of kindness, and your kind words. We feel privileged to be a part of the godly tradition of the Houghton Wesleyan Church and to participate in ministry with you. We look forward to the year ahead and all that God has planned for you and for us.

EPIPHANY:

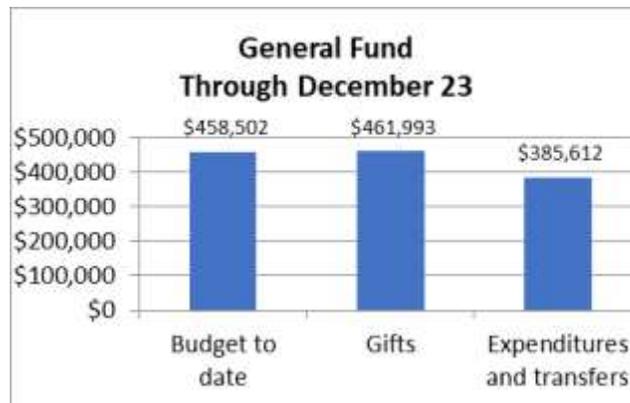

Epiphany, January 6, is a day of great joy for all Christians. It completes the twelve days of Christmas; more important, this is the festival of the manifestation of God's Word made flesh. The central images of the Magi bearing gifts suggest the three races of humanity coming to worship the Christ. A second manifestation is the baptism of Jesus. A third manifestation is the wedding feast at Cana when Jesus first revealed his power. The season of Epiphany continues through Shrove Tuesday (March 5). Ash Wednesday, which is the first day of Lent, is March 6. The emphasis of Epiphany is on the revealing nature of God, his desire for all people to know his nature and power—the character of his being. The color is green which points us to life—physical and eternal. The trees green out in the spring to reveal that the trees are still alive. The grass also turns green revealing the life that has been hidden during the winter.

STEWARDSHIP – A Life of Generosity

The start of a New Year is a time of new beginnings as we think back on the past year and look for opportunities to do things better in the coming year. How can we be better stewards of what God has entrusted to our care – resources like time, energy, and money?

God's extravagant generosity to us comes in the form of Grace – freely given to all. We respond to this grace with thankfulness and gratitude. Because God's grace is an "incredible gift," one would expect our expressions of gratitude would be radical in return – coming from the very core of who we are. Simply put, stewardship is a spiritual discipline rooted in our relationship with God.

May you find freedom and joy in the discipline and obedience of generosity.

THANK YOU to everyone who helped decorate inside and outside the church for the Christmas season. Your involvement makes the celebration even more meaningful.

Sanctity of Human Life Sunday is January 20

Every year in the United States alone, more than one million babies are aborted. Statistics show that 50 % of U.S. women who obtain abortions are younger than age 25, and at current rates, nearly one-third of American women will have an abortion. Sanctity of Human Life Sunday, January 20, 2019, is a day to celebrate and focus on choosing life.

The Wesleyan Church supports the sanctity of life and those who choose to trust God despite difficulties. January 20, 2019, marks Sanctity of Human Life Sunday, an event observed the third Sunday of every January. Wesleyans are encouraged to observe this day on which many take a stand for human life.

Because all human beings are created in the image of God (Genesis 1:27) and are "fearfully and wonderfully made," (Psalm 139:14) abortion grieves his heart. God, the Creator of the universe, deeply values human life and it says so in his Word:

For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb.

I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made;

Your works are wonderful, I know that full well. My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth.

Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.

How precious to me are your thoughts, God! How vast is the sum of them! (Psa. 139:13-17 NIV).

Christian Education Building is open.*

From the Library Shelves

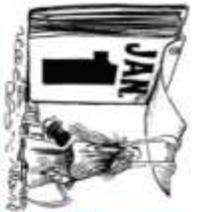

Happy New Year!! In this new year I hope you will come in to our church library and see what we have for you. We have recently received a number of new books in both the children's and adult sections.

In our children's section we have some new Henry and Mudge books, I Can Read with My Eyes Shut by Dr. Seuss, a fun book about bears (do you know why bears go fishing??!!), colorful books about things in nature, and some short biographies like Betsy Ross and the Silver Thimble. Come see!

In the adult section we have a few more books in the Sugarcreek Amish Mysteries series, new Karen Kingsbury books and others. We also have a new series by Terri Blackstock. There are a number of new biographies—Riley Unlikely, Same Kind of Different as Me, and more. There are also books such as--Am I Messing Up My Kids, and Fear Not Tomorrow, God is Already There, to name a few.

Come on in and find something to enjoy!!

Wellspring Ministries

We have said it or thought it repeatedly : "He or she will never change."

Untrue. Only One will never change - God. BUT, He does have the power to change people. That is our prayer request for 2019 at Wellspring - that lives will come to God to be made new, transformed by His power. Please pray for our Board, volunteers, clients. We all need His touch so we are more than just a smiling non-profit that hands out food and material goods.

Gratefully we acknowledge your part in this ministry, the most important part of which is communicating God's love and mercy.

Contributions are welcome Monday and Tuesday on the Beardsley porch or can be taken directly to Wellspring.

Because of your generosity, over 300 children had gifts at Christmas. Warm clothing and bedding have been provided. Ham portions were given to folks to take home for their family dinners over the holidays. The Word has been shared repeatedly.

We reopen Friday, January 4, at 10 am.

If your schedule permits, do come sit and chat with folks over a cup of coffee or for a meal at noon.

Grateful for your prayers
- Beth Beardsley (for the Board)

"You are the God who performs miracles; you display your power among the peoples." Psalm 77:14

PRAYER MINISTRY: The prayer room is still available for you to use. Reserve an hour or more at www.hwchurch.org/prayer-room/.

HOUGHTON AREA SENIOR CITIZENS

Our January gathering will be on Thursday, January 10.

Our meal begins at noon in the Houghton Church Community Room, and following good fellowship over the meal, we will hear from Bill Heaney, a familiar local historian. (This is a change from the earlier schedule.) Bill has been involved in an initiative with others in Allegany County to restore more rich local history in area school classrooms.

As a reminder, here is our January potluck meal schedule:

initials A-F bring desserts, G-N bring casseroles, and O-Z bring salads (or swap with a friend.)

Bring your own table service. Everyone 55 and older (including any caregivers) will be warmly welcomed. Ask a friend who may not normally come to join you, and all of us.

Questions? Contact Daryl Stevenson at 716-397-6864 or at daryl.stevenson@houghton.edu."

Celebrate Recovery

If you were to look at yourself and the new, growing, and changing self 30 days from now, what would have happened to get you there? What actions would you be taking starting right now to be living in that new way of life? Start with one healthy new choice & step and let God move you into a beautiful and hope-filled changed life.

Celebrate Recovery meets from 7 to 9 PM on Thursday nights in the Good Shepherd Room (lower level of the church). Celebrate Recovery is a safe place to find community and freedom from the issues that are controlling our lives.
